WORLD SERIES TO DECIDE WHO IS BETTER MANAGER

Will Test Abilities of "Kid" Gleason and "Doc" Moran as Club Bosses.

BOTH HAVE DONE WONDERS

Result of Many Blue Ribbon Events in Baseball History Has Hinged Upon Which Team Had "Edge" in Leadership.

BY JAMES J. COUGHLIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Many world series have been played in the history of baseball.

And the result of every such contest has been a matter of record.

There is no doubt that the series between the Yankees and the Red Sox will be one of the most interesting in the history of the game.

The Yankees have done wonders in the past few years.

They have won the pennant three times in the last five years.

The Red Sox have done wonders in the past few years.

They have won the pennant once in the last five years.

SPIDERS HOLD SCRIMMAGE

PROSPECTS FOR WINNING ELEVEN BEGIN TO BRIGHTEN

Coach Dobson in Advance Decision Today on Game With Indians

Coach Dobson has three letter men back and had forty-four candidates out yesterday afternoon for a light scrimmage. The letter men include Harry Carter, who was elected captain of the 1917 team, and who won the series, Spencer, 1917 half back, and Clyde Miller, who was elected captain of the 1918 team.

Prospects for a winning eleven are beginning to brighten and soon brighter when word is received from the field yesterday that many former players on several teams participated in the series. Coach Dobson will announce today whether the plan is to play the Indians.

If the Spider-Indian game is scheduled for Thanksgiving it will be the first between the colleges of the Virginia Intercollegiate Association ever held at that time. In former years Washington and Lee and the University of Virginia have played on Thanksgiving Day.

Coach Dobson will announce today whether the plan is to play the Indians. He has put his men through another strenuous scrimmage this afternoon from 10 to 12 o'clock. The intention of the coach is to have plenty of action on the gridiron to develop the team and to get the best of the other eleven of the association who have the advantage of more letter men.

Coach Dobson will announce today whether the plan is to play the Indians.
